

A New Seasonal Book!

What Will Lacey Be for Halloween? tells the story of a puppy who is going to her first Halloween party. Trouble is, she doesn't know what to be. Lacey searches for the perfect costume, while her friends—PeeWee, Sterling, Sadie Sue, Loki, Cooper, Lola, and Miles—all have ideas. With the clock ticking down, what does Lacey decide to be?

Young readers share in the excitement of choosing a costume, which forms the backdrop—not the focal point—for the story. We follow Lacey through the decision-making process and her developing agency—topics that have current appeal to teachers, librarians, and parents alike. As Lacey literally tries on each of her friends' suggestions, readers are asked if it is a good costume for her. Will Lacey end up being what her friends want her to be, even if it doesn't feel right to her? Or will she make her own choice—one that fits with who she is and still delights everyone?
